

DARYN R. CAMBRIDGE

2818 New Providence Ct. Falls Church, VA 22042
daryncambridge@gmail.com, 703-475-8195

EDUCATION

Jan. 2007 – May 2008
Washington, DC

American University – M.A. International Training and Education

- Professional Certificate, International Peace and Conflict Resolution
- Participant in 3 courses (6 credits) at AU's Peacebuilding and Development Institute.
- Presented original academic work at the Gandhi/King Conference in Memphis, TN and the Global Nonviolence Student Conference at James Madison University in Harrisonburg, VA.

Aug. 1999 – June 2003
Middlebury, VT

Middlebury College - B.A. Liberal Arts

- English/Philosophy Joint Major & Geography Minor.
- Dean's List for 3 semesters and College Scholar for 1 semester.

June 2009 – Present

International Center on Nonviolent Conflict – Director, Knowledge & Digital Strategies

- Develop and implement ways to communicate, teach, and disseminate information, content and educational resources via professional level courses, university seminars, webinars, online learning, workshops, educational events, social networks, and digital tools;
- Develop strategy and manage content for organization's website;
- Facilitate workshops for community groups and organizations.

May 2009 – Present
Washington, DC

American University – Adjunct Professor

- Design and teach the undergraduate course, "Education for International Development;"
- Design and teach the course, "Education for Peace and Conflict Resolution," a continuing education course for DC Public School teachers, counselors, and administrators.

Sept. 2008 – Apr. 2009
Washington, DC

Common Cause – Director, Youth Programs

- Helped direct a national campus organizing program at 76 colleges and universities and managed an office-based policy internship program;
- Mentored and trained students how to organize grassroots issue campaigns;
- Designed issue campaigns and educational events geared towards college and university campuses;
- Met with members of Congress to address policy and legislation;
- Built partnerships with and lead outreach to other youth advocacy organizations;
- Gave presentations and conducted workshops on various topics at conferences and on campuses.

Sept. 2006 – Sept. 2008
Washington, DC

The Democracy Matters Institute – Assistant Director

- Mentored and trained student organizers on twenty college campuses;
- Started the Democracy Matters High School Fellows Program;
- Gave presentations and workshops on various topics at colleges, high schools, and conferences;
- Designed and maintained new website for organization;
- Created promotional materials and multimedia resources;
- Assisted the Executive Director in administrative planning and implementation.

Sept. 2007 – May 2008
Washington, DC

American University – Graduate Assistant

- Conducted research for professors in the School of Education, Teaching and Health;
- Managed department listserv and updated department website;
- Taught session of an undergraduate class – International Education and Development.

Jun. 2006 – Aug. 2006
Amherst, MA

Putney Student Travel, Excel Program – Teacher

- Designed and taught two, college level courses – "The History of War" and "International Relations."
- Helped students organize their own community action initiatives focusing on an international issue of their choosing.

Jan. 2004 – Jun. 2006
Alexandria, VA

The Close Up Foundation – Program Supervisor, Program Instructor

- Interviewed, trained, and supervised a staff of fifteen program instructors;
- Designed and facilitated civic education, civil society training, and current issue workshops for students from all across America and the globe;
- Received over 350 hours of training in the fields of experiential education, community building, and leadership development;
- Received "Outstanding Program Staff Award" and "Above and Beyond the Call of Duty Award."

May 2004 – Aug. 2004

The Student Conservation Association – Crew Leader

- Led group of high school students in conservation projects around the DC area.

CONSULTANCIES

| | |
|---|--|
| Sept 2009 – Present | United States Association for the University of Peace – Trainer <ul style="list-style-type: none">Design and facilitate a series of professional development teacher trainings focused on incorporating peacebuilding, conflict resolution, and brain based learning skills into the classroom. |
| Aug 2009 – Present | One World Education – Learn Shop Facilitator <ul style="list-style-type: none">Design and facilitate workshops on peacebuilding and conflict resolution for youth serving organizations. |
| August 2009 | Learn-Serve International – Facilitator <ul style="list-style-type: none">Designed and co-facilitated a workshop on cross-cultural learning for high school youth. |
| May 2008 – Present | Global Peace Studies – Founder <ul style="list-style-type: none">Designed an online education guide for high school teachers and students interested in global peace studies (http://www.globalpeacestudies.org). |
| Spring 2008 Washington, DC | Dialogue Development Group – Facilitator <ul style="list-style-type: none">Co-facilitated a seven-session dialogue on politics and the 2008 election for a group of graduate and undergraduate students at American University. |
| Feb. 2007 – Sept. 2007 Washington, DC | Philotic, Inc. – Consultant, Non-Profit Outreach <ul style="list-style-type: none">Assisted in the design and promotion of the Causes application on Facebook. |
| Mar. 2005 – Sept. 2005 Washington, DC | Remember the Grays – Consultant <ul style="list-style-type: none">Designed and maintained website for citizen group;Developed promotional materials. |
| Summer 2003 | Pelican Publishing – Consultant, Development <ul style="list-style-type: none">Designed and maintained website for live concert recording company;Developed promotional materials;Trained employees in live audio recording. |
| Summer 2000 & 2002 South Africa & Uganda | World Bank – Workshop Assistant <ul style="list-style-type: none">Helped administer two World Bank workshops on "Assuring the Quality of Bank Operation in Africa." |

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCES

| | |
|--|--|
| Sept 2009 – Oct 2009 Washington, DC | United States Institute of Peace Professional Course – Participant and Presenter <ul style="list-style-type: none">Participated in a seven-week professional level course, "Civil Resistance and the Dynamics of Nonviolent Conflict," which focused on the theoretical and strategic elements on civil resistance.Co-presented the module, "Building Coalitions and mobilizing people." |
| June 2009 Medford, MA | Fletcher Summer Institute on the Advanced Study of Nonviolent Conflict – Participant <ul style="list-style-type: none">Attended a five-day institute at Tufts University's Fletcher School as a participant and observer from the International Center on Nonviolent Conflict. |
| March 2009 Guyana | Sister's of Mercy – Volunteer <ul style="list-style-type: none">Travelled to Guyana to volunteer at Mercy Boy's Home, St. John Bosco Orphanage, and Mehaica Leprosy Hospital. |
| July 2003 – Present | Marathoner – Runner & Fundraiser <ul style="list-style-type: none">Ran four marathons and four half marathons.Raised over $7,500 for the Whitman-Walker Clinic and the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society. |
| Summer 2007 & 2008 Washington, DC | Center for Progressive Leadership – Mentor <ul style="list-style-type: none">Mentored interns in the progressive leadership program.Facilitated workshops on campaign finance reform. |
| May 2008 – Nov. 2008 Falls Church, VA | Vote for Change – Volunteer <ul style="list-style-type: none">Door-to-door canvassing, voter ID, and voter registration in Fairfax County, VA. |